PRESIDENT
F. M. FORTENBERRY

COPIAH-LINCOLN JUNIOR COLLEGE
WESSON, MISSISSIPPI

1966

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

F. M. FORTENBERRY
PRESIDENT

To the Sophomores of 1966:

Congratulations to each of you who are completing your work at Copiah-Lincoln. This is another milestone in your educational career, and each of you should be proud of this because it places you among a small percent of the total population who have reached this educational level. Because you have been privileged to receive above average educational opportunities, you in turn must assume above average responsibilities.

It would be tragic indeed for you, and for the community in which you live, if your years at Copiah-Lincoln have increased your ability to lead and produce, and at the same time failed to increase your desire to serve your fellowman, because after all it is through serving that we pay back that which has been given to us.

As you leave this institution we hope that most of you will continue your education. However, regardless what the future holds for you, we want you to know that we shall always be interested in you because our success is measured in terms of your success. If we here at Copiah-Lincoln can ever be of service to you in any way, we hope you will call on us.

As the years go by and you review the pages of the 1966 "Co-Lin Trillium" we trust that it will bring back pleasant memories of friendships made while students here at Copiah-Lincoln.

May God's richest blessings go with each of you and may you always strive to emulate the Great Teacher in all that you do.

Very sincerely,

F. M. Fortenberry

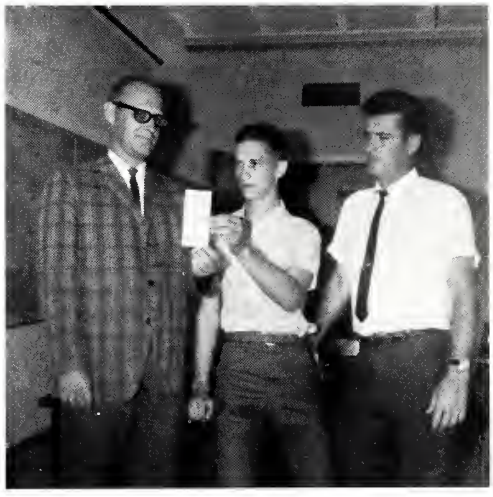
President F. M. Fortenberry surveys the progress on the construction of the new vocational-technical facilities.

"And here's a list of all the football players . . ."

"And this room is close to the pool?"

Lanny Dickey, building construction technology major, receives a scholarship check from Dudley Mitchell, executive director of the Mississippi General Contractors Association.



Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society officers are Dennis Granberry, vice-president; Joyce Smith, secretary-reporter; Tommye Budwah, treasurer; Carolyn Calcote, president.

THE 1966 TRILLIUM STAFF HAS WORKED LONG AND HARD TO PRODUCE THIS YEARBOOK FOR . . .

MR. FOREST CASE

Dedication

Do You Know . . .

One of the most popular and respected young teachers on Co-Lin's campus . . . a man who appreciates a good joke and tells a few himself . . . an excellent educator who shows eagerness to help his students or those who need his advice . . . a person with a ready smile and a friendly hello . . . one who replies "I'm wonderful," when asked how he's feeling today . . . a loyal Bulldog fan . . . famous for his maroon sportscoat, his "422" with a four-in-the-floor, his rendition of "Fraulein," . . . a Co-Lin and Mississippi State graduate with a master's in mathematics . . . a man respected and admired for his intelligence, ability and personality. In gratitude for his seven years of service to Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. E. Forest Case, Jr.

A Tribute

The 1966 TRILLIUM is a lasting tribute to our Alma Mater. The staff's aim in the publication of this yearbook is to present a picture of our school activities, both regular and extracurricular—classwork, club activities, and sports—

. . . a story told in pictures of our work, our play, and our beliefs

. . . a story of a school dedicated to an intangible ideal that tomorrow's achievements are built on today's accomplishments.

"It is the men and women, boys and girls so poured in and out all day

That give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories."

Carl Sandburg

THROUGH THESE DOORS

THE SEARCH FOR A KEY TO UNLOCK A NEW TRADE ROUTE TO INDIA LED TO THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA.

LIKE THESE SEAFARING EXPLORERS, STUDENTS OF COPIAH-LINCOLN ARE CONSTANTLY SEARCHING FOR THE KEY THAT WILL UNLOCK THE DOOR TO KNOWLEDGE, POPULARITY, AND SUCCESS IN SCHOLARSHIP, ATHLETICS, OR LEADERSHIP.

THE STUDENT HIMSELF IS THE MASTER KEY, NOT HIS TEACHERS, FAMILY, OR FRIENDS. IF HE UTILIZES ALL OF HIS GOD-GIVEN GIFTS—HIS OWN TALENTS, ABILITIES, AND DETERMINATION—HE CAN SUCCESSFULLY UNLOCK THE DOORS FOR A BRIGHT AND PRODUCTIVE FUTURE.

THROUGH THE USE OF BOTH WRITTEN AND PICTORIAL RECORD, THE TRILLIUM SHOWS STUDENTS OF COPIAH-LINCOLN AT THE FIRST OF THESE DOORS TO A SUCCESSFUL FUTURE. THROUGH THESE DOORS PASS SOME OF THE FINEST PEOPLE IN THE WORLD.

"I find the great thing in the world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving."

Goethe

Memories Of A Time Called "Youth"

New worlds to conquer . . . new friendships to make . . . excitement . . . a feeling of adventure . . . but the past will be missed . . . and missed . . . and missed . . .

As you go your separate ways, not knowing if happiness or sorrow will cross your path, hold the thoughts of your days at Co-Lin as the happiest of your life. Turn to this rambling structure, which houses the best of students and adults, and simply say "Thanks for the memory."

I can't stand to see a grown man cry.

"What can we do till the band gets here?"

"Yaba-daba-do!"

"We've got to remember to return these comic books to the faculty lounge this afternoon!"

Where the action is.

Surf's up!

SUMMER FUN

"We're gonna cast lots for the biggest slice."

A-1 Fly Catcher

Just a bunch of mothers . . .

The cry was beat "Scooba," and we would've if "Betsy" had not developed.

"Oh, Charles, I didn't know y'-a-l-l c-a-r-e-d!"

administration and faculty, unlike the students, are a permanent, integral part of a school. Because of the size of Copiah-Lincoln, the administration and faculty are able to become a part of each student's life, thus creating an atmosphere of warmth and security on the campus.

Each administration and faculty member gives all of himself to the school—in his knowledge, interest, and friendship. Using this knowledge and experience, he hopes to help his students grow toward the maturity each one is seeking.

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College is a growing institution. The expansion of present vocational-technical facilities cost approximately $338,000.

Two new faculty homes were completed this summer. These two homes bring the total number of homes for Co-Lin personnel to fourteen. Eight new faculty members were welcomed into the Co-Lin family this session. Because of Co-Lin's increased enrollment, the largest in the school's history, two additional educators were employed in the English Department.

The administration and faculty are an integral part of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College. We, the students, are grateful for their interest in our education and in our lives.

SUN – set and evening star and one clear call for me" best describes classes and the need for education, for education—the quest for knowledge and understanding—is the one clear call for youth. It is the secret which opens the doors to the future and what lingers on horizons facing youth of today.

In our classes, we associate with fellow students, browse through our textbooks, but seldom ever apply ourselves fully; nevertheless, through the diligence of our teachers, we somehow manage to absorb valuable lessons of life and we learn that habits formed and ideas conceived in early life remain with us for many years to come. Through these classes, we learn math, come to know basic principles in science, and we become familiar with the foundations of English. Perhaps, more important, we realize the value of an education.

Through the medium of the classroom, our knowledge is broadened; and with this comes understanding. These experiences make us more able to face and cope with the problems life often passes out in numbers. With the hope that education gives us, our horizons become brighter; the "one clear call" increases in volume, and we leave Copiah-Lincoln better for having been here.

Copiah-Lincoln's Vocational-Techn

Industrial Growth Of Ou

Mr. Dwight Harris demonstrates the functions of the Scope Motor Tester to auto mechanics students.

Of all Copiah-Lincoln's outstanding assets, the school's vocational-technical program is one of the most progressive.

More than $338,000 has been spent on recent additions to the facilities. This year's addition of approximately 27,100 square feet of floor space brings the total amount of footage to more than 50,000 square feet.

The new buildings add business education classrooms, a metals testing lab, electronics equipment, data processing facilities, a technical library, and facilities for the beginning of an associate degree nursing program.

The new numerically-controlled tape machine is checked out by Mr. Herman Cavin, voc.-tech. instructor, and students. This $82,000 piece of equipment does milling, boring, drilling, and tapping operations.

Mr. Ed Smith, mechanical drawing teacher, explains the use of the delicate instruments involved to students. More than $25,000 has been spent on equipment used in the modern mechanical drawing classrooms. Mr. Jack Thomas also teaches mechanical drawing.

al Department Aids Area Of State

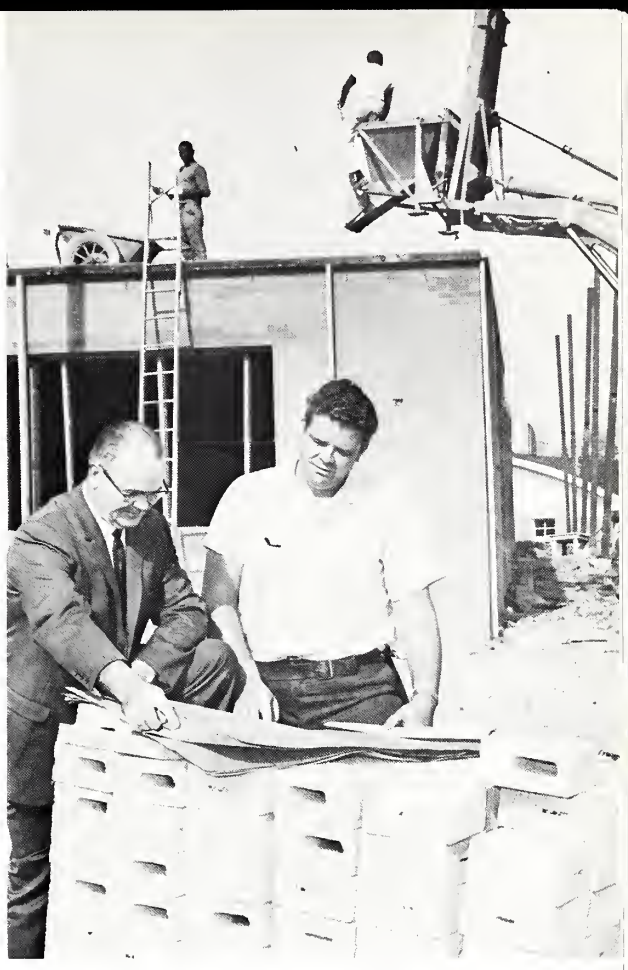
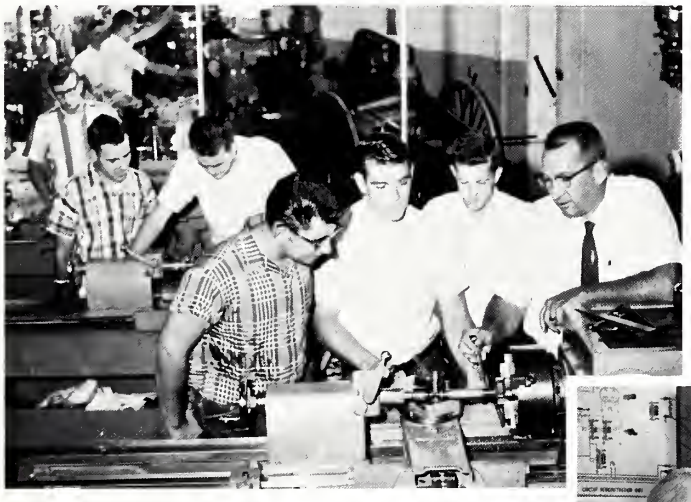
President Fortenberry states that more than half a million dollars has been spent on the buildings used in our vocational-technical program.

Approximately $300,000 worth of equipment is employed in the department, and some of the most modern machines in the South are available for use by Co-Lin students.

The vocational division trains auto mechanics, machinists, and welders. The technical division is a two-year terminal course offering drafting and design, building construction technology, electronics, and mechanical technology. The industrial arts program is a college preparatory course leading to a major in that field.



President Fortenberry checks the plans for the new building with electrician Bennet Baker.



Machine Shop is capably taught by Mr. Hugh Statham.

The Vocational-Technical Program Is Coordinated By Mr. Luther Garrett.

Part of the $27,500 worth of electronics equipment is used by Mr. William Parks, electronics instructor, and class members.

Freshmen — Future Leaders

WHAT IS A HIGH SCHOOL?

When you think of a high school, what do you see?
This is the picture that comes to me:
A high school is people—teenagers all.
It's assemblies and classes and a rush in the hall.
It's a panic at grade sheets; it's blue and white;
It's thrills and excitements that are always bright.
Suspense fills the hallways, and rivalry is keen;
All yearn for a scholarship, who will be Queen?
A high school means projects and clubs with their fun,
And everybody working till all tasks are done;
Tense moments at ball games—Will we win or not?
That "Fighting Cobra" spirit means more than we thought!
What is a high school? What is its story?
It has been told here in all of its glory!

THE DOORS

of fellowship, religious training, and entertainment are opened by the participation in campus activities and organizations. At Co-Lin to "belong" all a student has to do is knock at the door, push it open, and step in to receive a sincere welcome from the members of any club or religious organization.

Always on the go, Co-Lin students rushed constantly from class to class and from meeting to meeting. Each school activity, which played an important part in this school year, longs to be remembered. In a desperate attempt to do everything, the students actively participated in clubs, avidly supported the Wolves, and worked hard on their curricular activities. There was never a moment to spare during this busy, exciting, wonderful year—a year to be cherished always.

The theme of this year's 40 annual staff members was the trite expression, "To produce the best annual Co-Lin ever had." Although the theme wasn't new, the enthusiasm displayed by sophomore and first-year staff members was. Inspired by the three awards the 1965 "Trillium" won, and possessing new knowledge and confidence, this year's staff worked diligently to plan, lay out, edit, pay for, and publish the 1966 "Trillium" for you.

Judy and Rodney clown it up while working on the staff's Homecoming display.

High school students were invited to join the staff this year. More than 600 people attended the annual-sponsored beauty pageant. A large crowd enjoyed the staff's second annual "Bloomer Bowl" powder-puff game, and the Who's Who pageant honored Co-Lin's most popular people.

High school staff members who made a valuable contribution are, seated, Becky Harris, Linda Fortenberry, Wanda Pettigrew, Anita Gruchy, and standing, Susie Harris.

"Trillium" sponsor Larry Hogue poses with Business Manager Gail Lofton and Editor Linda Dunaway. Gail was responsible for the annual's financial condition, and editing the ad section. Linda assumed overall responsibility for the success of every phase of the publication.

Scene from Mr. Hogue's birthday party, given to him by staff members.

Staffers seated are Karen Little, Diane Payne, and Florece Ratcliff. Standing are Sylvia Case, Barbara Smith, Melba Anderson, Bonnie Armstrong, and Becky Coleman.

Five color pictures in the 1966 "Trillium" mark a major breakthrough in the use of color photography. Heretofore, only one color picture has been used. This is the largest "Trillium" ever produced, and it has one of the largest number of subscribers in the school's history. The staff's desire is that when you turn these pages years from now you may fondly remember Co-Lin as representative of some of the best years of your life.

Annual-Sponsored "Bloomer Bowl'

Adding to the fan's enjoyment was the band composed of both students and faculty, with guest soloists Mr. Clyde Wilson and Miss Brighid Donaghue.

A huge crowd witnessed Co-Lin's second annual "Bloomer Bowl" powder-puff football game, pitting the sophomore girls against the freshmen.

A spirited clash, well-played, saw Love Walker of Wesson, after blocking a punt, score for the sophomores. Crystal Springs' Brenda Gordon streaked over the goal line for the freshman squad.

Sophomore halfback Carolyn Calcote rips through the freshman line for valuable yardage as "monstrous" Linda Dunaway, Trillium editor, comes up to give Carolyn a little help.

Battle Ends In 6-6 Deadlock

Extracurricular activities included a duet by Mr. Russell and Miss Mullin, trying to sell Payday candy bars and cokes by singing a commercial over the public address system.

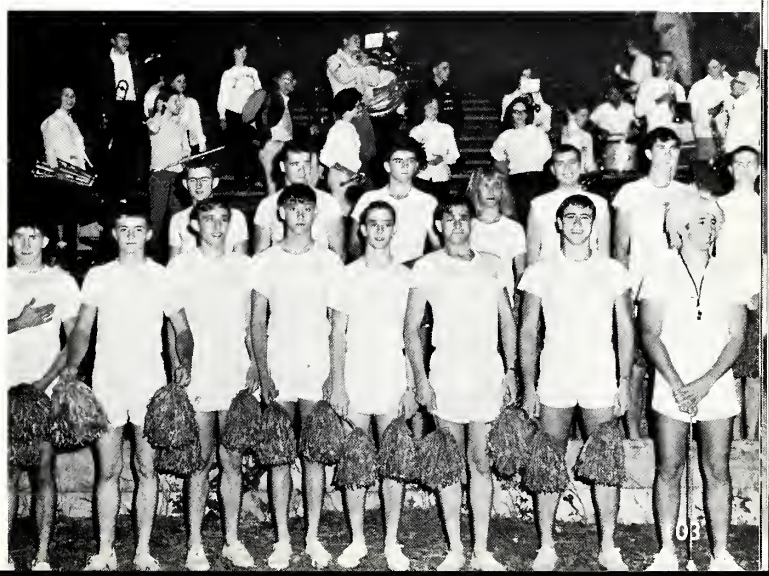
"Co-Lods" and band members hilariously entertained the fans at halftime. Vonnie Cothren was featured as "Head Co-Lod" and Jearl and Earl Sasser were Co-Lod captains.

A special attraction included the appearance of band members Clyde Wilson on the sax and Brighid Donaghue "playing" the French horn.

The Trillium Staff is indebted to the numerous persons who helped to make the extravaganza a success.

Freshman "White Tornadoes" were, from left, front row, Susan Buckley, Charlotte Adams, Maxie Garner, Julia Johnson, Cherry Hux, Patricia Lofton, Judy Adams. Second row, Charlotte Hartzog, Diane Campbell, Anne Munson, Alice Ferguson, Donna Nettles, Betty Matthews, Patsy Little, Diane Hall. Third row, Brenda Buckles, Kay Gibson, Beverly Thames, Phyllis Whittington, Peggy Ward, Brenda Gordon, Marilyn Brumfield, Vicki Derrick. Back row, Coaches Paul May, Charles Hall, Cheerleaders Jimmy Brumfield, Stan Lambert, George Spring, Fred Baker, and Coach Danny Wallace.

Plunging Patsy Little picks up valuable yardage for the freshmen before being stopped by defensive ace Karen McMillan.



Providing an amusing and entertaining halftime performance were the infamous "Co-Lods." Special thanks go to the Misses Melba Anderson and Joyce Smith and the other Colettes who helped teach these "lovelies" how to "dance."

Co-Lin Band And Colettes One Of 12 Bands Throughou

Discussing the New York trip are Mr. Ed Pierce, NBC producer, Dennis Mulhearn, Macy executive, Director Clyde Wilson, Colette Director Betty Jo Stewart, and Head Colette Lola Case.

New York City and the nationally-televised Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade highlighted the band and Colettes performances during 1965-1966. The simple statement, "one of 12 bands selected from the 196 which applied for the New York performance from over the nation," summarizes the quality of Co-Lin's outstanding parade unit. Individuals and business concerns from all over the state helped pay expenses for the trip. Co-Lin's musicians and precision dance group produced a tremendous representation of Co-Lin and Mississippi to the nation. After the performance, Director Wilson received congratulatory telegrams and letters from as far as California.

The band and Colettes have also received highest praises for their performances in recent years, at the National County Agents Convention in New Orleans, the National Jaycee Conventions in Louisville, Kentucky, and Dallas, Texas, the Cherry Blossom Festival, Cotton Carnival, and major Mississippi events. The group says "hats off" to Mr. Clyde Wilson, the band director, and Mrs. Betty Jo Stewart of Brookhaven, the choreographer, for a job well done.

Sports

THROUGH

the doors of Co-Lin's athletic facilities, students have the opportunity to develop such traits as teamwork, cooperation, and responsibility.

To an outsider, sports mean games and excitement and cheering. But in the athlete's life, sports mean much more than that. They mean long hours of tiresome practice, high hopes and sometimes the lonely feeling of defeat as well as the thrill of victory. To other students and to teachers, sports mean watching and rooting for good friends and working to show the best your school has to offer.

Half the fun of being a spectator is the contest to out-yell the opponent's boosters. A look over the fans in the stands will reveal a wide variety of facial expressions—humorous, serious, exuberant, tired, proud, sad, and joyful.

We're proud of Co-Lin's athletes, some of the finest in the state. The attitude of the students along with the great support of the cheerleaders contributed to this year's fine school spirit.

Homecoming Reflections

A sunny, chilly day at Co-Lin and November 6 were the setting and time for our 1965 Homecoming. The day dedicated to former students was highlighted by a 33-12 victory over Itawamba's Indians. Coach Ricketts called the win a "fine team effort."

Numerous campus organizations worked hard planning and building original and interesting displays. Miss Janet Smith, 1964's queen, returned to relinquish her crown to Queen Patsy.

Last year's Alumni President Ray Albritton of Hazlehurst was seceded by Mrs. Maude Elsie Smith of Bogue Chitto. Mrs. Grover Smith of Wesson was re-elected secretary. Co-Lin's Alumni Association Vice-President for 1965-66 is Joe Patterson of Jackson.

Alumni Enjoyed A Day Of Varied Activities During Homecoming

Our administrators do their part in making the alumni feel at home.

The college choir presented an afternoon of entertainment in honor of former Wolves.

The alumni enjoyed a reception and a "Dutch Supper" in the dining hall that evening, prior to the football game.

For the first time in the history of Copiah-Lincoln, the "Trillium" staff elected a "Trillium Sweetheart" to represent them in the Homecoming Day festivities.

Nominated and elected from the more than forty girls on the annual staff, the "Trillium Sweetheart" represents further prestige and recognition for staff members.

"The judges asked me about the war in Vietnam!"

An evening of entertainment and beauty was presented at 7:30 p.m., December 9 during "Garden of Enchantment," the annual's beauty pageant. Karen McMillan, first-semester feature editor, did an admirable job conducting the event.

Competition began at 4 p.m. Thursday afternoon at a reception where the judges interviewed contestants individually. Outstanding persons selected as judges included Mrs. Ruth Fondren, president, Fondren Beauty Inc.; Mark Ledbetter, sports director, WLBT; and James Gould, president, McComb Jaycees. The decision-makers continually commended all the contestants and stressed time and again how "difficult" it was to choose.

Not because they are above us, but because they are a part of us while expressing those qualities of scholarship, friendliness, and sharp sense of duty that we value most, we the students have elected RONNY SMITH and CAROLYN CALCOTE to be most typical of our best, MR. and MISS COLIN, 1965-66.

Their honor, the highest that may be awarded by fellow students, is made even nicer by the fact that Ronny and Carolyn are engaged, to each other.

Who's Who Scenes

Some of Copiah-Lincoln's most popular and outstanding students were honored by the annual's Who's Who Pageant Feb. 22, 1966.

Miss Ann Page, features editor of the "Trillium" was mistress of ceremonies, and the staff chose Mardi Gras as the theme.

Principal J. M. Lewis crowned David Derrick and Elaine Smith as Mr. and Miss Co-Lin High. President Fortenberry did the honors for Mr. and Miss Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, Ronny Smith and Carolyn Calcote.

After the presentation, a dance was held in honor of the Who's Who winners. Music was furnished by the Squires of Co-Lin High. Squire members were Lee Burgess, Randy Furr, Rusty Varnado, Don Roberts, and Clifford Britt. Madelyn Folkes and Don Strickland served as rose and crownbearers.

"The Trillium" Awards Seven Staff Members

Working on a yearbook staff involves a lot of effort and little glory. To do the job right requires numerous hours of planning, typing, selling ads. drawing layouts, taking pictures, and writing copy.

Students who perform these tasks give generously of their time and talents. They contribute something of lasting value to Copiah-Lincoln. Because of their outstanding, unselfish attempts to do their jobs well, these students are named winners of the second annual "Trillium" awards. They were selected from the more than 40 annual staff members.

Six sophomores and one freshman are included on the roster of honor-winners. The 1964-65 winner of "THE TRILLIUM AWARD" was Miss Alice Faye Walker of Magee, business manager.

In Memory Of:

Miss Lula Stevens

Miss Lula Stevens was Copiah-Lincoln's dean of women for 39 years. She passed away February 27, 1965. Dean B. F. Hunter spoke of her as "a lady that had given the better part of her life to the welfare of young people. She went far beyond the call of duty, being on call both day and night to give unselfishly of her time, knowledge, and talents in helping other people. She always placed other interests above her own."

Alumni, former students, and friends have expressed a desire that some type of memorial to Miss Stevens be established. "The Lula Stevens Memorial Scholarship Fund" is the proposed result of this wish. When funds for the scholarship are obtained, they will be awarded to a young lady in her second year of academic work at Co-Lin.

A Message From Our Business Manager

COPIAH-LINCOLN JUNIOR COLLEGE
WESSON, MISSISSIPPI

1966

F. M. FORTENBERRY
PRESIDENT

To Our Patrons:

The 1966 Trillium is the largest yearbook ever published at Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, and the first in recent years to have high school students as staff members. The book has also broken all records for color printing.

Nothing has been spared in an attempt to make this progress edition the finest yearbook published in the history of the college.

Without our advertisers, this yearbook would yet remain merely a dream. Never before have advertisers responded so willingly as they have for the 1966 Trillium. We owe them our deepest appreciation.

We hope that you will use the advertising section as a buyer's guide, for they are truly your friends--without them, you would not have this special progress edition yearbook.

Again, we say thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Gail Lofton

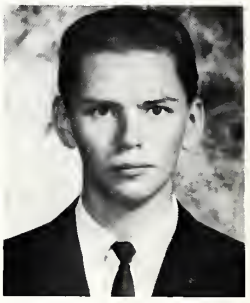
World Premiere Of "The Trillium's" Dubious

THE TOGETHERNESS AWARD to these lovely people, who may or may not use Ban, but still enjoy being close.

Recognizing the fact that all worthy individuals at Co-Lin can't possibly be recognized and honored, "The Trillium" has initiated the "Dubious Achievement Awards."

The awards are given at random, and they're intended to give added interest and entertainment to the book. Any similarity to Co-Lin students and teachers is purely intentional. The idea was conceived in the spirit of good-natured fun; we hope it will be received in the same manner.

THE VIRTUOSO-OF-THE-YEAR AWARD to Miss Donaghue, for her shining musical performance at the "Bloomer Bowl."



THE CO-LIN'S OUTSTANDING YOUNG D.J. AWARD to Bill Roberts, for dedicating "The Sound of Silence" to Co-Lin on the weekend, and for saying that listening to him was the girls' "only salvation" during lonely weekends.

THE BEST GIGGLER AND BIGGEST EATER AWARDS to Donna Reed; Miss Reed's versatility is exceeded only by her charm.

TOURIST OF-THE-YEAR AWARDS to Melba Anderson and Joyce Smith, for being the first in line at all cafes and rest stops on the New York trip.

RUNNER-UP FOR TOURIST OF-YEAR? Butch Dear, for limping all over seven states during the New York trip.

THE BEST-DRESSED FRESHMAN AWARDS to Bonnie Armstrong and Bobby Freeman.

THE NANCY NURSE AWARD to Thomas Woodrow.

FRESHMAN PHOTOGRAPHER OF-THE-YEAR AWARD to Jimmie Wilkerson, staff photographer.

AD MODELS OF-THE-YEAR AWARD to Linda Fortenberry and Becky Harris, for their help posing for pictures for annual ads.

THE CUTEST KID ON CAMPUS AWARD to Karen Mullen, proudly displayed by her brother Robert.

Achievement Awards

THE "TWINKLE-TOES" AWARD to the "Co-Lods" for their spirited performance at the "Bloomer Bowl" game.

THE SANDPIPER AWARD to these bathing beauties.

THE CHARLES ATLAS BEFORE AND AFTER AWARD to Robert Cloy and James Richmond.

THE "TAKING IT HARD AWARD" to Ginny Owens for her reaction to this picture.

THE COOL DADDY AWARD to Charles Smith, Dramatics Club president, for his contributions to campus culture.

LOVER-OF-THE-YEAR AWARD to James Papizan, pictured with only two of the reasons for the award.

THE CIGAR, CIGARETTES, TIPARILLO AWARD to Miss Doreen Case.

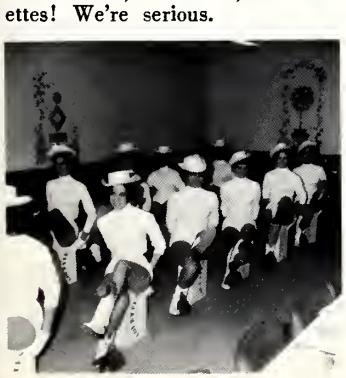
THE PHYSICAL EDUCATION AWARD to this couple for their dynamic display of youth and vitality.

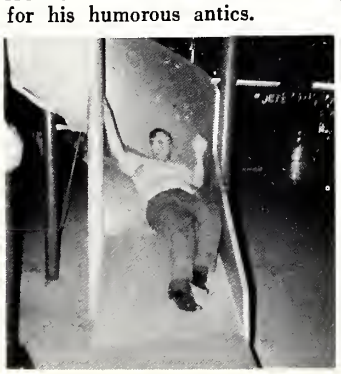
PAJAMA PARTY-OF-THE YEAR AWARD to Linda Dunaway, Milly Mason, and Gail Lofton, at Ole Miss.

THE BEST HAIR STYLIST OF-THE-YEAR AWARD to Mr. Clyde Wilson.

THE ENTERTAINERS-OF-YEAR AWARD to, who else, the Colettes! We're serious.

THE WORLD'S OLDEST TEENAGER AWARD to Mr. Russell, for his humorous antics.





THE TWO-DAB AWARD to Richard Hill, for the fine growth on his head, and his forehead.
